PRACTICE AREAS

General Business Practice

GENERAL BUSINESS

SCOPE OF SERVICE

The General Business Practice is an area of continuous growth and expansion. Usually, once an acquisition or corporate reorganization is completed, that implies a change of control, our team of general business takes care of the follow up and advising of the client in general matters of the company, such as corporate matters and corporate governance, commercial transactions, intellectual property, real estate law, labor law and social security regulations, consumer protection, among others.

Corporate Matters

Services provided as part of our general corporate practice include assisting the client in determining the most appropriate vehicle for conducting business in Argentina, the obligations of foreign companies regularly performing acts in Argentina, and/or holding interests in Argentina, incorporation of companies in Argentina, preparation and filing of documents with the relevant governmental authorities.

We assist our clients in their commercial transactions, including the negotiation and execution of various types of commercial agreements, such as manufacturing contracts, façon production agreements, distribution and sales contracts for products, license and franchise agreements, commercial agency contracts, advertising and other promotional agreements, transportation, supply and construction contracts, sales contracts, agreements for the purchase and sale of intangibles, lease and acquisition agreements, outsourcing agreements, information technology agreements, telecommunication and systems agreements.

PRACTICE AREAS

Taxes & Tax Planning

TAXES & TAX PLANNING

Taxes

As a complement to our services in other areas, the tax and tax planning team renders legal advice to our clients in all tax issues related to an adequate tax planning strategy to be implemented in their transactions. Lawyers specialized in this area have an extensive experience and are recognized for having advised different multinational companies which belong to different sectors, on the management and structuring of the financing required for their projects realization. Our lawyers' assistance comprises every tax aspect of different kinds of transactions, including advice on direct and indirect taxes, rates and contributions, always aiming at maximizing the companies' tax benefits in their financial restructuring and corporate reorganization processes.

Furthermore, we have an extensive experience in terms of negotiating tax benefits or differentiated tax treatments for the implementation and development of industrial projects related to capital market transactions and financial transactions in general. Particularly, as regards to structuring and implementation of financial transactions, we have a large experience in loan agreements, bonds issue, securitization, transactions involving securities and derivatives, among others.

We have a sound practice advising on the creation and implementation of efficient cross-border tax structures.

Our main purpose is to design appropriate and tailored structures to respond to our clients needs, whether they are individuals or national or international companies. In this sense, we focus our analysis on achieving, within the legal framework in force, an efficient scheme that enables us to reduce the tax impact derived from certain passive income (including foreign ones) and minimizing the financial burden of taxes which affect income and net worth in the different countries.

For that purpose, the tax planning team has a wide knowledge on the tax laws in force, not only in Argentina, Brazil or Chile, but also in the United States, Europe, the Asian market and the main off-shore jurisdictions. This makes it possible for us to offer our clients the best advice in order for them to duly comply with their tax obligations, obtaining, at the same time, as much advantage as possible from the legal provisions in force in the different jurisdictions.

PRACTICE AREAS

Dispute Resolution

SCOPE OF SERVICE

The dispute resolution team offers services to our clients when dealing with negotiations, out-of-court settlements, mediation, litigation and arbitration processes, with the optimization of the client's position as a goal, and focused, depending on each case, on the preservation of inter-company relationships, and time and money cost effective, or the judicial or arbitral recognition of the client's pretense.

Negotiations and Out-of-Court Settlements

We conduct direct out-of-court negotiations aimed at resolving any disputes with third parties, responding to our clients' interests, by applying the methods and skills necessary for the process. This device enables the client to preserve intercompany relationships, to achieve an expedient and cost-effective resolution and to maintain the confidentiality. We advise our clients on any price adjustments which may need to be made as the result of noncompliance with the representations and warranties made by the sellers in stock or asset purchase agreements.

Even though one of our main objectives is to provide a legal assistance in a manner to avoid potential conflicts by emphasizing the use of conciliatory devices, we litigate before any court, in all instances and before administrative courts, including customs, tax, exchange and market-related litigation.

Litigation

SCOPE OF SERVICE

Mediation

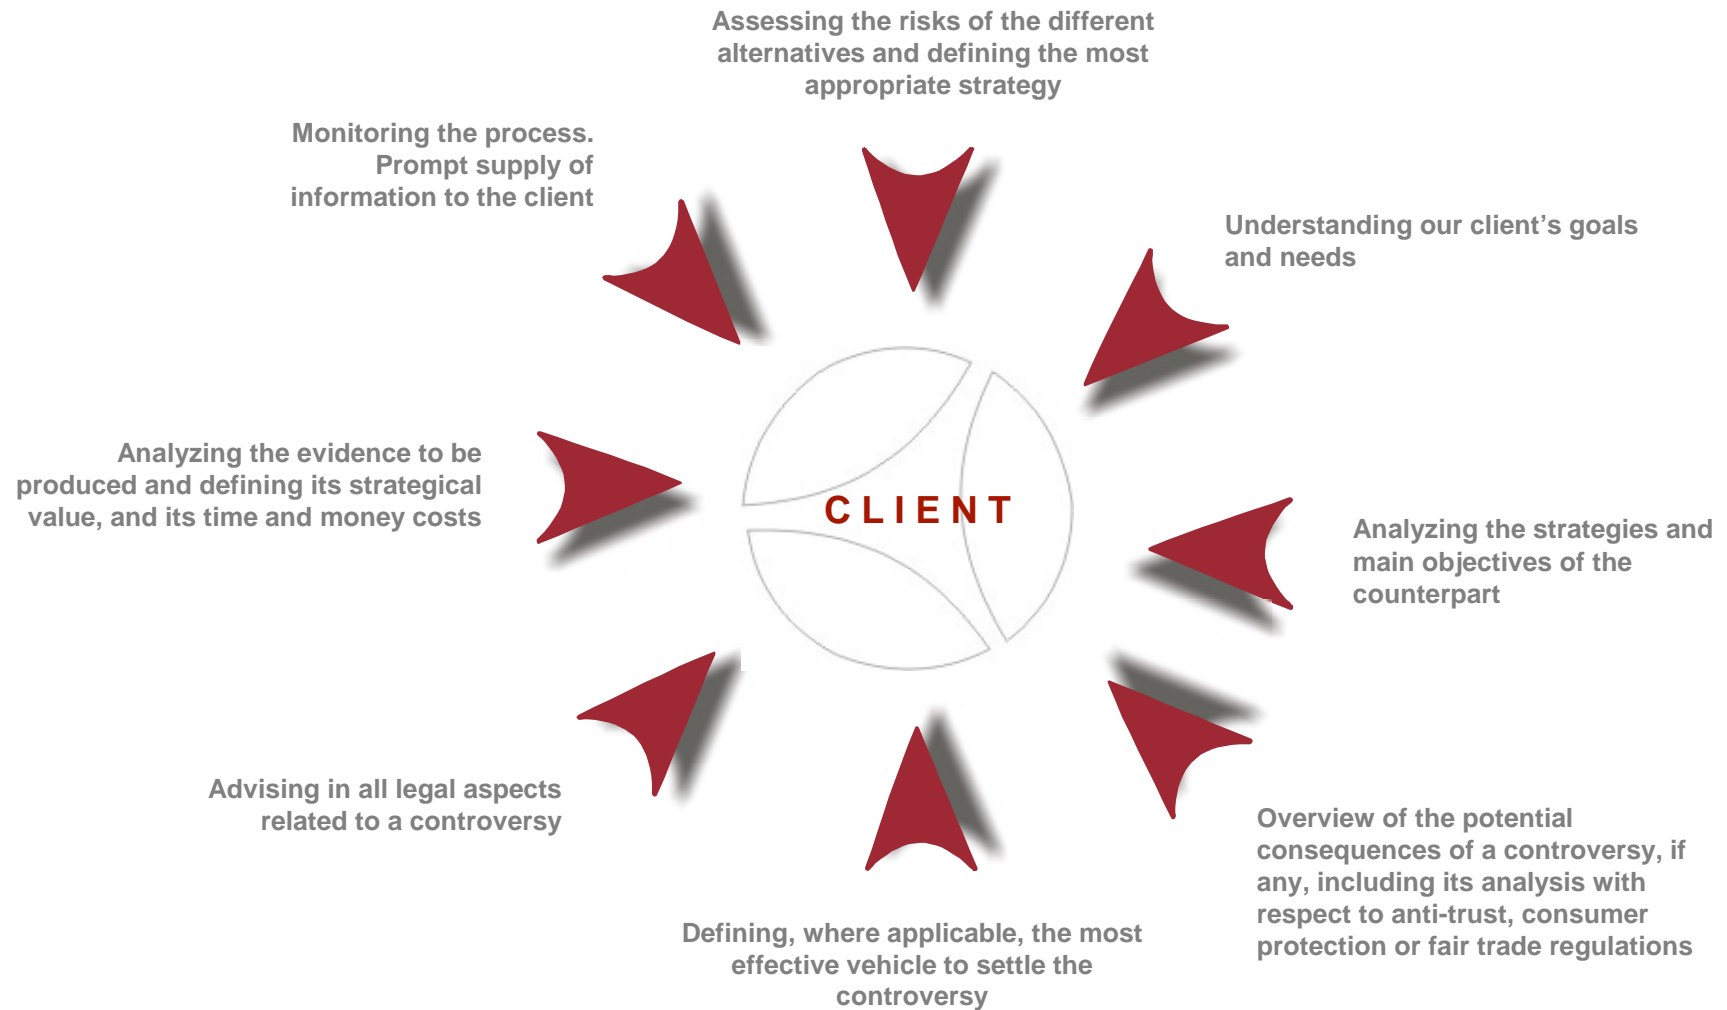

We advise our clients in all the different stages of the mediation processes, considering the different aspects of mediation in each area. Furthermore, we act in tandem with the mediators appointed to achieve appropriate solutions for the parties and to avoid judicial proceedings.

We frequently advocate for the inclusion of arbitration clauses in agreements involving well-known national or international bodies. This precaution affords clients the means to resolve contractual disputes expeditiously and without a time and money costly judicial proceeding. In the event arbitration process becomes necessary to resolve disputes arising out of any agreement, we provide legal assistance and representation during arbitration process and during the subsequent execution of the award.
